Newsletter Q2 Vol 01 2022

Summer is synonymous with "fun." In that spirit, we're excited that the Congressional Baseball Game for Charity is right around the corner. We hope you can join us for this annual event in support of organizations that mean a lot to us, including the United States Capitol Police Memorial Fund and Washington Literacy Fund.

Whether you plan to vacation or staycation this summer, prices from fuel to flights to food are at historic levels. We've included summer spending tips to help you save without sacrificing fun.

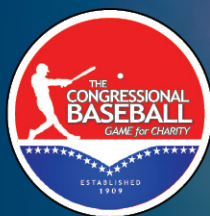

We are proud to share the essays that won our Carleton "C.C." Jenkins College Scholarship for graduating high school seniors. Best wishes to all 2022 graduates for their bright futures ahead. You can also find helpful information on FAFSA and managing student loans below.
